

BRAC-133 News Bulletin: September 26, 2011

Employee Move-in Schedule: To date, a total of 2,200 Department of Defense (DoD) jobs have moved been into the BRAC-133 Mark Center building. An additional 2,500 employees are scheduled to move in by December 31, 2011; and 1,600 employees by September 30, 2012.

Transit Update: Ridership on new DASH and WMATA bus routes serving the Mark Center has steadily increased as employees have begun moving into BRAC-133. DASH Bus express service between King Street and the Mark Center has served approximately 200 DoD riders daily (through September 9); and WMATA bus routes between the Pentagon and Mark Center has served approximately 1,900 to 2,500 DoD riders weekly (through September 9).

Emergency Management Information Session: An emergency management information session, “BRAC – C3 Forum,” will be held on Thursday, October 20, beginning at 7 p.m. The location will be determined and announced as soon as it is confirmed. The purpose of the forum is to provide participants with an opportunity to discuss current response capabilities related to several external threats in proximity to the BRAC-133 Mark Center facility. Facilitated by City officials, the public forum will discuss emergency response to three potential threat scenarios. For more information, contact Mark Penn at 703.746.5256.
